 - a. The propensity of an equine to behave in ways that may result in injury, death or loss to persons on or around the equine;
 - b. The unpredictability of an equine's reaction to sounds, sudden movements, unfamiliar objects, persons, or other animals;
 - c. That there may be hazards, including but not limited to, surface or subsurface conditions;
 - d. The possibility of a collision with another equine, another animal, a person or an object.
 - e. The potential of the client to act in a negligent manner that may contribute to injury, death, or loss to the person of the client or to other persons, including but not limited to, failing to maintain control over an equine or failing to act within the stated ability of the client;
 - f. Riding, jumping, showing, trail riding and the like
 - g. Teaching, instructing and evaluation, both the rider and the horse;
 - h. Routine care and feeding of the horse, including veterinary and farrier;
 - i. Travelling, loading and unloading of horses; and,
 - j. Breeding activity, both natural and artificial.
4. Client acknowledges that Herbst Arabians LLC has relied on the disclosure by client of his/her rider ability and experience level to determine the proper horse (if Provided) and training for Client.
5. Client acknowledges and accepts the "Assumption of Risk by person engaged in recreational activities" as set forth in Connecticut General Statutes 52-556p which states: "Each person engaged in recreational equestrian activities shall assume the risk and legal responsibility for any inquiry to his person or property arising out of the hazards inherent in equestrian sports, unless the injury was proximately caused by the negligence of the person providing the horse or horses to the individual engaged in recreational equestrian activities or the failure to guard or ward against a dangerous condition, use, structure or activity by the person providing the horse or horses or his agents or employees." Herbst Arabians and its employees are not responsible for any medical payments or hospital payments.

Client hereby waives, release and hold harmless Herbst Arabians LLC, its officers, directors, employees and subcontractors from any and all claims or causes of action, including but not limited to negligence (as set forth in C.G.S. 52-556p) involving any recreational equestrian activities or services provided to Client by Herbst Arabians LLC, its officers, directors, employees and subcontractors.

Client acknowledges and agrees that the Client has been given sufficient time to read, understand and to ask any questions concerning the intent and terms of this Agreement. Client further acknowledges that the Client has made sufficient inquiry as to the services, facilities and research as Client deems necessary and prudent before executing this Agreement.
